

Workshop 'Game Theoretical Approaches to Implicature in Complex Sentences'

April 28th – 29th

Organiser: Anton Benz

The main topic of this workshop are game theoretic approaches to Gricean pragmatics, and, in particular, models of implicatures in complex sentences.

Mo, 28.04.14

13:00 Opening

Anton Benz

13:45 – 14:45

Sascia Pavan (Pordenone, Italy):

What Forward Induction Can (and Cannot) Do in Game-Theoretic Pragmatics

15:00 – 16:00

Gerhard Jäger (U Tübingen):

The different flavors of the Iterated Best Response Model of game-theoretic pragmatics

16:30 – 17:15

Jon Stevens (ZAS):

A game theoretic approach to focus

Di, 29.04.14

09:40 Coffee

10:00 – 11:00

Michael Franke (ILLC Amsterdam):

Local enrichments from global reasoning

11:15 – 12:15

Anton Benz (ZAS):

Error Models and Implicature in Complex Sentences

14:00 – 14:45

Uli Sauerland (ZAS):

Intermediate Scalar Implicatures

15:00 – 15:45

Bob van Tiel (U Bielefeld):

Implicature: rationality vs. regularities