

Student assistant at Leibniz-Zentrum Allgemeine Sprachwissenschaft (ZAS)

The Leibniz-Zentrum Allgemeine Sprachwissenschaft (ZAS) is looking for a student assistant to undertake tasks for a project in child language development. The project investigates the narrative abilities in Kam-Mandarin bilingual children (<https://www.leibniz-zas.de/en/research/research-areas/language-development-multilingualism/nalec>).

Expected Start Date

1 February 2022

Expected work hours and days

25 hours per month

A duration of 5 months is desired

Your tasks

- transcribe, score and code Mandarin-speaking children's narrative data
- assist in conducting literature research/review on research topics related to the project
- perform any other duties as assigned by the project leader or his/her delegates

Your profile

- preferably a good BA degree in Linguistics/Psycholinguistics with relevant training in Mandarin syntax and child language development
- preferably a native speaker of Mandarin
- willing to transcribe and code massive experimental data

Formal requirements

- enrolled as a student at a German university or at a foreign university with H+ status (searchable in the database anabin.kmk.org)
- Master's degree not completed

If you are interested, please send an e-mail with your application documents (curriculum vitae, certificates and proof of academic degrees/grades; BA students are requested to send copies of their high school diploma) as a PDF (by 30 Nov 2021) to Dr. Wenchun Yang (w.yang@leibniz-zas.de).

The Leibniz-Centre for General Linguistics is committed to promoting equality and diversity. Therefore, female and disabled applicants meeting the desired qualifications are particularly welcome.
